

ADORATION IN LIFE

MY SOUL
MAGNIFIES
THE LORD!

FROM TRIALS TO TRIUMPHS

Dear Lord,

Help me to fully realize the beauty of your holiness and to stand in awe before it on the altar of my heart.

So that each tiny trial, such as losing my keys, mislaying important papers, mechanical things failing or drawers that stick, would all become tiny grains of incense to offer up to you.

Then I would recall the myriad graces and blessings you have showered on me. So that all would be offered to you, trials with patience, or joys with thanksgiving.

Prepare my heart for your precious presence and make me your own. Pray for me as you did for St. Peter for the devil would sift me like sand, except for your loving intervention.

Let me always choose you in all instances of my life so you will choose me at the last. And I can spend eternity thanking you.

Grant it, Lord.
